Description:

MACq 01 is Australia's first storytelling hotel delivering authentic, emotionally charged experiences that are linked to the stories and characters of Tasmania's past. The idea behind MACq 01 is simple: create a hotel inspired by the unique character and people of Tasmania. From the rooms and decor to the service, the food, the entertainment, the views and even the people you meet within its walls, MACq 01 has been designed to offer a quintessentially Tasmanian experience.

Each of the hotel's 114 rooms are set in informal luxury and linked to a real character central to the story of Tasmania – he-ros, villains, explorers, inventors, convicts, bushrangers, first people, industrial giants, political mavericks and much more.

Accommodation is available in a variety of luxurious suites and rooms complete with premium furnishings and fittings. All of the 114 rooms and suites feature spacious layouts, walk-in robes, King size beds or 2 King Singles, 55" Flat Screen TV's, Coffee machine, private balcony and wire-less sound system.

Email: info@salamancawharfhotel.com

Description:

The Salamanca Wharf Hotel, situated only a few metres from Hobart's waterfront and backing onto the historic and famous Salamanca Place, is in the cultural and historic heart of Hobart. You really couldn't choose a better spot to drop anchor in Hobart.

Only a stone's throw from many of the city's major meeting venues, this contemporary self-contained boutique apartment hotel offers its visitors ultimate comfort and convenience within one of the oldest and most beautiful precincts in Australia.

Their mantra is to make your stay as comfortable as your family home with a little bit of 'wow' thrown in. The 22 room hotel provides a mix of 15 apartments, 3 studio apartments and 4 loft penthouses – each fully self-contained and 5 star self-rated. Completed in 2012, it is one of the newest venues in Hobart.

The décor is inspired by the majesty and beauty of Antarctica with the vibrant blues, aqua, golden orange and russet reflected throughout the hotel. Quality timber finishes and furniture sit alongside colourful curtains, cushions and throws. Rooms also feature extraordinary photography by Antarctic adventurer Laurent Dick.

All the rooms are individually heated and cooled, keeping guests in control of the temperature. Most importantly the massive glass windows in every room can be thrown open to let in the famous Tasmanian fresh air.

Other features include functional fully-equipped kitchens featuring quality appliances and fully stocked bar fridges full of Tasmania's best beers, wines, cheeses and chocolate.

The hotel also boasts a 50 PAX restaurant ideal for small event dinners.

Email: functions97434@bestwestern.com.au

Description:

Best Western Hobart is a four star international hotel with a convenient CBD location within walking distance of shops and the Hobart waterfront.

Best Western Hobart is the ideal location for corporate groups to conduct meetings, incentives, conferences and events. Supported by the hotel's food and beverage packages, onsite catering can be tailored to your meeting and events needs.

Spanning across four floors of the hotel, there is no event too large or too small for the venue. The hotel spaces can be moved to host board room meetings, cocktail and theatre style events, banquets and classroom/lecture style meetings.

Layout of spaces

Choose from six fully refurbished meeting rooms that can be configured to cater for events of varying sizes. All with the latest audio, visual and technology projectors fitted in each room, the last decision you'll need to make is what you'd like served. With our dedicated events team on site, we ensure each meeting or event runs smoothly and that you are comfortable and catered for through its duration.

Conference rooms

The Retro Room This room holds up to 30 people, ideal for small meetings, product launches and informal meetings. The room is fitted with a boardroom table which can comfortably seat 20.

The Goulburn Room

The largest of the meeting rooms, this space holds up to 300 people for theatre and banquet style events. Ideal for u-shaped board meetings, gala dinners, banquets or as a plenary room for your conference. Complete with dance floor and bar.

The Wellington Room

One of the hotel's more popular function rooms, The Wellington Room is great for meetings and seminars of around 40 people. This room is ideal for stand up cocktail parties for up to 80 people, business and events meetings and is versatile enough to accommodate u-shaped seating. Also popular as a breakout room for conferences.

The Bathurst Room

The Bathurst Room is a more intimate size does private meetings and events, with a capacity of 24 people in a training/classroom seating or 35 people for stand-up and casual events. Conveniently positioned with sliding doors through to the Goulburn Room, this room could also be used as a side room to display auction items for gala dinners or other requirements for large events.

The Warwick Room

The ideal room for small, private meetings, small board meetings up to 10 people or even a study space. Popular breakout room.

The Terrace Room

Versatile and a great space to 'dress up' with an event theme, this space is the second largest available to book in the hotel. The natural light through floor to ceiling windows is a big drawcard. Ideal for any function day or night, dinners up to 100 guests, popular events here have included banquets, cocktail parties, theatre style events and more.

Catering

The BEST WESTERN Hobart's onsite restaurant, Embers, can be booked to sit 80-90 people for food and banqueting events. Adjacent to the restaurant floor is the Embers Lounge and Cocktail Bar - the perfect place to begin introducing a product launch or to entertain guests and colleagues before, during and after a special event.

Enjoy a lunch break in the middle of your board meeting on the balcony leading out from the Terrace Room, or even organise a morning tea buffet with tea, coffee, fresh cakes and biscuits on the corner of the Wellington Room. Our dedicated events team is on call to cater for all your events' needs.

Description:

The Quality Hobart Midcity Hotel is perfectly located right in the centre of the Hobart central business district. Only a short stroll to Constitution Dock, the Tasmanian Museum Art Gallery and Salamanca Markets.

There is an array of shops within the hotel arcade varying from a book store to a retail wine and beverage outlet. If shopping is your thing then there is no better hotel to stay at than Quality Hobart Midcity Hotel.

Our friendly staff will welcome you on arrival. The hotel offers 106 non-smoking rooms with views over the Hobart cityscape. A variety of room configurations means that room types are suitable for couples, families or large group bookings.

Rooms are all accessed via elevators from reception and with the added security of key card access to floors and rooms so you can sleep easy. Rooms facing the street are also double glazed so that street noise is no issue.

The hotel is ideally based for corporate travellers as well as holiday makers wishing to take advantage of the central location.

Many local tour operators provide hotel pick-up and drop-off for a range of sight-seeing tours around the Hobart area. Whether it is a wine tour in the Coal Valley, a Ghost Tour at Port Arthur or a visit to the MONA museum, we have you covered.

Description:

The Henry Jones Art Hotel is located on Hobart's waterfront and is Australia's first dedicated art hotel. The site in which it is located dates back to 1804 and the former jam factory has been transformed into an enthralling first class hotel designed by award-winning architects, Morris-Nunn Associates.

The hotel is furnished with over 400 Tasmanian artworks and presents an environment in which people can experience art in a new and more immediate way. With a continuously changing exhibition, the hotel has been created to present itself as a fusion of art, heritage, tradition and nature. Exterior and interior space present art as part of the Hotel's function beauty.

The hotel houses 56 rooms and suites all uniquely different and furnished with the hotel's history and contemporary art as the forefront of each space. To complement the most distinctive and unique Hobart accommodation, its restaurants and bars highlight the best of Tasmania's fine food and beverage produce for a truly unique experience.

Right throughout the property you will be fascinated by the unexpected combination of the antique and ultra modern in every form.

The hotel has won a number of awards for design, accommodation, food beverage and service since opening its doors in 2004 and aims to provide all guests with a truly unique experience.
